

No Mountain Too High Ride 22 Update

Check this website regularly for updates on our March 4, 2022
Border-to-Border snowmobile ride!

First, a big THANK YOU for the heartwarming response received so far to help young Jesse and his family. Your sponsorships and donations are greatly appreciated.

Anyone donating or participating in the ride will receive a specially designed “Jesse Strong” t-shirt – Youth and Adult sizes available!

RIDERS, FRIENDS, FAMILIES... Wondering where to stay after the ride? The Four Seasons Inn, Derby, VT, is holding 40+ rooms for us! Please contact them (802) 334-1775 – make sure you mention the event! If they fill up, you can contact their sister hotel, Newport City Inn & Suites (802) 334-6558.

Notes On the event:

- Gather at 8am Oquossoc Marine, 87 Carry Rd Oquossoc Maine. There is plenty of parking for trailers and vehicles adjacent to the Marine.
- If you need accommodations on Thursday night March 3, please contact Rangeley Saddleback Inn. There are a limited number of rooms available.
- Ride begins at 9am – It is not intended that everyone starts at the same time. Ride at your own pace! Snack bags given to all riders!
- The marked trail is approximately 135 miles long.
- For those dropping off riders then driving from Oquossoc to Derby, if you need gas, get it in Canaan, VT. If you need assistance with a finding a driver, Brian Juliano may be able to help out. Contact Lana (see below).

- The finish line is the Cow Palace Restaurant, Derby, VT. There will be a buffet for all!
- If anyone needs lodging in Derby on Friday night March 4, the Four Seasons Hotel has plenty of rooms as well as their sister hotel, Newport Inn & Suites.
- RIDERS: Please register with Lana – Lana@julianospoils.com – T-shirts will be mailed after the ride to all participants!
